

Sommersemester 2005

Invitation for Participants of "Religion in Dialogue"

Sunday

Every Sunday at 7 p.m. we celebrate Eucharist in the Catholic Saint Ignatius Church, located close to the new campus of the Frankfurt University. A Folder giving the texts of the Sunday in German language will help you to participate. After mass is a good chance to meet young people living in Frankfurt and coming from Germany and all over the world.

(every Sunday, Jesuitenkirche St. Ignatius, Gärtnerweg 60, U-Bahn Alte Oper)

Religion in Dialogue

About once a month we invite Christians and Moslems to discuss different aspects of both their religions. Two students one Christian one Moslem interviewers into the evening.

(Beethovenstraße 28, planned: 10.5. and 7. 6. 2005 www.muslime.khgfrankfurt.de)

World Youth Day

In 2005 more than half a million young people from all over the world are expected for the World Youth Day in Germany. Participants of the Program "Religion in Dialogue" are invited to join our group and take part in the event.

(8.8. - 21.8.2005 Frankfurt an Cologne, www.magis2005.de)

Cinema

Over the summer we plan four Friday evenings of watching and analyzing movies. One evening in the "Sehschule für Kinogänger" will be a workshop on war-movies after 9/11 (24.6. 16.00-24.00 h). Three evenings under the title "FilmSinn" (FilmSense) will give you a chance to see and discuss movies with a metaphysical or religious background. On one evening we plan to offer you to have the discussion after the movie (original version) in English.
